

Five day executive training

Value addition of food grains

22.04.2024-26.04.2024

The technical sessions of the training will focus on:

- Overall scenario and scope of entrepreneurship development in the grain
- New technologies and innovations in value addition of food grains
- Equipment requirement in grain processing
- Storage and warehouse management for grains
- Packaging techniques used in grain products.
- Food safety, regulations and FSSAI certification standard and packaging for the grain based products

The hands on sessions of the training will cover:

- Hands on session on preparation of composite flours from grains.
- Hands on session on common household baked goods from grains.
- Demonstration of traditional value added products from food grains.
- Hands on session on different convenient products from grains.
- Hands on session on extruded snacks and savouries.

